eScribers Acquires AVTranz

April 13, 2015, New York - eScribers, a nationally recognized legal transcription company is pleased to announce today that it has acquired AVTranz, a prominent Arizona-based transcription and reporting company established in 1991. eScribers' acquisition of AVTranz represents a significant expansion of its resources in the western United States as well as a strengthening its presence in the Northeast.

AVTranz' highly skilled employees and robust technologies have enabled the company to achieve brisk growth and become a leading provider of transcripts to the legal community.

AVTranz and eScribers share many common values, including a passion for producing transcripts of the highest quality, an absolute commitment to delivering transcripts on time every time and for utilizing technology to simplify and streamline the transcript ordering process and delivery.

"We are excited to welcome the AVTranz team to eScribers as we expand our transcript preparation services to law firms and judiciaries across the United States," said Aryeh Bak, Chief Executive Officer of eScribers. "We plan to offer our clients a wider array of services including translation and reporting, in addition to our core competency: legal transcription."

Steve Townsend, CEO of TheRecordXChange and former CEO of AVTranz added that, "[w]e believe that this sale is very positive for AVTranz' clients, staff and contractors. The combined companies will able to provide a very high level of service and will create new opportunities for both the employees and the independent contractors that do work for AVTranz and eScribers". He went on to clarify that, "TheRecordXchange is not part of this sale. This sale allows for the separation of, and the growth of, the innovative and rapidly growing platform service TheRecordXChange independent of AVTranz."

The combined company is an approved transcript provider in more than sixty State and Federal jurisdictions nationally.

By integrating these two great companies we look forward to a stronger and more robust eScribers that is even better positioned to serve its customers.
